

Please leave this law alone. It's nice not getting all those unwanted solicitations at all hours of the day and night. Just because I do business with someone does not give that person(s) the right to solicit me whenever they want. If I want their services, I will solicit them.